

XM Satellite Radio is the BEST thing to happen to the airwaves since wireless was created! I pay for the various high quality services that they provide simply because I cannot get them from the local media markets. The NAB has NO business blocking the competitive technology & monopolizing the industry. They should improve their services or get out of the business!!!